

Speak out for
Justice & Dignity for women in prison
& women who have been in prison at the

Coalition for Women Prisoners'
12th Annual

ADVOCACY DAY

TUESDAY - APRIL 4, 2006

Albany, NY

HELP ADVOCATE FOR:

- Increased funding for programs that help keep families connected when a mother is in prison.
- Health care coverage for women leaving prison and jail.
- More programs and services in women's prisons that address the specific needs of incarcerated women.
- Allowing domestic violence survivors incarcerated for committing crimes as a result of abuse to earn time off their sentences.
- Further reform of the Rockefeller Drug Laws & increased funding for drug treatment & alternatives to incarceration for women.

On April 4, join the Coalition to call on New York's elected officials to stop spending millions of dollars on prison - an inhumane & ineffective response to the social ills that drive crime - & to expand community-based, gender-specific alternative programs that save money & rebuild lives & families. Help advocate for policies that protect the rights of incarcerated women & for an increase in services that enable women to make a healthy, safe & productive return to their communities after prison.

To get involved, contact Jaya Vasandani, Women in Prison Project, Correctional Association of NY, 212-254-5700 x311, jvasandani@correctionalassociation.org

www.correctionalassociation.org/WIPP/WIPP\_main.html